DOCTOR OF THE YEAR AWARD

Excellence Awards 2013

Humayun Ahmad

This year's award goes to a doctor who combines kindness and reassurance for patients with innovation and forward thinking in clinical practice. He is always praised by patients for being a very caring and understanding doctor who is a great role model for his team. He was clinical lead on a patient safety project which won the Trust one of the highest national accolades as an 'Exemplar Centre' for venous thrombo-embolism (VTE). This project helped to develop an electronic tool to ensure mandatory risk assessment for VTE in patients admitted to hospital.
